OWNERSHIP GROUP

Peter Holt
Chairman

Rolling up his sleeves and taking a simple, hands-on approach is nothing new to San Antonio Spurs Chairman Peter M. Holt. The president and CEO of the San Antonio-based Holt Companies, which own Caterpillar dealerships in South Texas and Ohio, Holt believes in leading by example through his values-based management philosophy. And, leadership is in the Holt bloodlines – the Spurs Chairman is the great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first crawler-tractor and a founder of Caterpillar, Inc.

Another Holt business tenet is corporate responsibility in supporting community projects, and that leads to one of the primary factors in his decision to invest in the Spurs – a desire to keep the team in San Antonio and operating successfully.

And, in the last two years, Holt has seen this "community project" succeed in extraordinary ways.

In June 1999, Holt joined with hundreds of thousands of gleeful Spurs faithful in celebrating the team's first NBA Championship.

The following November, the Spurs Chairman and the community celebrated again. On the very night the team received their championship rings, Bexar County voters overwhelming approved an initiative to build a new community arena. The SBC Center – the new home to the Spurs and the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, as well as hundreds of community events – broke ground in August 2000 and is slated to open in the Fall of 2002.

Holt is especially proud of the SBC Center project, as it was a true community partnership, involving the Spurs, Bexar County, the San Antonio Livestock Exposition and the Coliseum Advisory Board. "The SBC Center is custom-made for San Antonio," says Holt. "And it will have something for everyone."

A Peoria, Ill. native, who lived in San Antonio as a child before moving to Corpus Christi, Holt bought into the Spurs in 1996 and became Chairman of the Board in July of that year. He and his wife, Julianna Hawn Holt, are now the franchise's principal owners.

The Holt family's history in San Antonio began in 1933, when Peter's great uncle, William K. "Bill" Holt, moved to San Antonio to start a Caterpillar dealership. He had no heirs, so B.D. Holt (Peter's father) got involved in the business. In 1961, B.D. Holt moved to Corpus Christi and started his own Caterpillar dealership.

After high school in Corpus Christi, Peter Holt went into the U.S. Army, serving two years, including a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam. He ended his military duty as a Sergeant E5 with a Silver Star and three Bronze Stars for Valor and a Purple Heart for wounds received.

Peter re-joined his father in the Holt Companies in 1983 in Corpus Christi. In September 1987, Peter and his father purchased Holt Machinery Co. in San Antonio, reuniting the original Caterpillar dealership that Bill Holt started in 1933. Not one for formalities and pretense, he offices in a San Antonio corporate headquarters building made of metal corrugated siding and dubbed "The Barn."

With a long commitment to community service, Holt served as the 1999 General Campaign Chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County. He is a member of the World Presidents' Organization, sits on the board of the San Antonio Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse and is a trustee of the Palmer Drug Abuse Program. A strong supporter of international trade, Holt is a board member of Free Trade Alliance-San Antonio, as well as the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation. He also serves on the corporate board of Chase Bank-San Antonio.

Holt – a Spurs season-ticket holder since 1988 – is proud of the franchise's history of commitment to the San Antonio community. His support runs the gamut from the United Way to the Spurs Foundation's efforts with the Fannie Mae Foundation's Home Team Partnership – helping to build and refurbish homes for purchase by persons with low-to-moderate incomes – to the Spurs Drug Free League youth basketball program for school kids who play basketball after school until their parents get home from work.

Since becoming part of the ownership group, Holt has encouraged the Spurs players and staff to become involved in the community of San Antonio. In fact, the Spurs were named the winner of the 2000 Pro Team Community Award presented by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame. The annual award recognizes the leader among professional sports franchises in basketball, baseball, football and hockey that best demonstrates outstanding community involvement and acts as a catalyst for community pride and spirit.

"I'm very proud of the time and effort our players give to this city," he says. "This is a great group of people who mean a lot to San Antonio on and off the basketball court."

But with all the notoriety that being Chairman of a NBA franchise brings, Holt remains grounded in the values which govern how he "does business."

"Working with volunteers on a community project, or with the Spurs players and staff, or within the Holt Companies, it's always the same," he says. "Treat people fairly and honestly, and the amount you can accomplish with others is far greater than anything you can do by yourself."

BASKETBALL STAFF

Gregg Popovich

Head Coach and General Manager

For Gregg Popovich, basketball is a passion. But it's not his only passion. He is just as proud of the Point of Light Award he received from President George Bush as he is of the 1999 Championship ring he earned with the Spurs.

As the Spurs Head Coach and General Manager, Pop has had a profound impact on the city of San Antonio. The city will never forget the 1998-99 season when the Spurs captured the NBA Championship. After posting a 37-13 record during the regular season, the Spurs compiled a 15-2 record in the 1999 post-season to capture the first title in the Spurs 26-year history. Over 350,000 fans packed the city's River Walk on June 26, 1999 for the team's victory parade, which was done in San Antonio style – players, coaches, owners, front office staff and, of course, the team's Baseline Bums floating along the river on barges under the hot Texas sun.

But Pop has touched the community of San Antonio off the court as well. The Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League was started by Pop – when he was an Assistant Coach with the Spurs – and Frank Martin back in 1991. Today the league plays at 75 locations in and around San Antonio. Over 20,000 boys and girls – ages 7 to 16 – played in the league in 1999-2000. And prior to each game, each participant takes the Drug-Free League pledge, promising to remain drug and alcohol free while showing good sportsmanship and fair play. In February of 1992, President Bush awarded a Daily Point of Light Award to the Spurs Drug-Free League.

Prior to the start of the 1999-2000 season, Pop got involved in the San Antonio Food Bank. In addition to serving as the organization's Honorary Chairman, he pledged one dollar for every point the team scored during the 1999-2000 season. He challenged others to do the same. Thanks to Pop's efforts, others did step up – including David Robinson who matched Pop's dollar-per-point pledge – and at the end of the season he presented a check for $50,000 to the San Antonio Food Bank.

Of course given his background, it is no surprise that Gregg Popovich has a balance in his life. A 1970 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy with a degree in Soviet Studies, Pop also has a master's degree in Physical Education and Sports Sciences. He played four seasons at the Air Force Academy and as a senior was the team's captain and leading scorer. Following his graduation in 1970, Pop served his five-year military commitment. During that time he toured Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces Team. Pop was selected to represent the U.S. on the national A.A.U. Team touring the Soviet Union and in 1972 was the captain of the Armed Forces team, which won the A.A.U. Championship. In addition, he earned an invitation to the 1972 U.S. Olympic Team Training Camp.

Once his playing days were over, Pop returned to the Air Force Academy as an Assistant Coach. He spent six years at Air Force during which time he also obtained his master's degree from the University of Denver.

In 1979, he was named the Head Coach at Pomona-Pitzer in Claremont, California. He spent the next eight seasons at Pomona-Pitzer. During the 1985-86 season he led the team to its first conference championship in 68 years and to a birth in the NCAA Division III Tournament. While at Pomona he was an active member of the school's academic community, working as an Associate Professor, chairing the college's Student Life committee, serving on the Women's Commission and even – for one year – living in a dorm with his family.

Pop moved to the NBA in July of 1988 when he joined the Spurs as an Assistant Coach as a member of Larry Brown's staff. Pop spent the next four seasons in San Antonio for a Spurs team that won a pair of Midwest Division titles. In the summer of 1992, Pop was named an Assistant Coach on Don Nelson's staff with the Golden State Warriors. He spent the next two seasons with the Warriors before re-joining the Spurs in the summer of 1994.

Pop was named the Spurs GM on May 31, 1994. Since that time, the Spurs have used the draft, trades and free agency to put together the current team. In fact, David Robinson is the only player still on the Spurs roster from when Pop was named General Manager.

Named the Spurs Head Coach on December 10, 1996, Pop has a career regular season mark of 163-115 (.586). He ranks second all-time among Spurs coaches in career wins, trailing only Doug Moe who was 177-135 in four seasons in San Antonio. In addition, Pop has a career playoff winning percentage of .667 (20-10) in his three post-season appearances.

In his three full seasons as Head Coach, the Spurs are 146-68 for a .682 mark. During that time span only Los Angeles (.743), Utah (.720) and Indiana (.687) have better winning percentages than the Spurs.

In addition to the Spurs Drug-Free League and the San Antonio Food Bank, Pop is involved in several other charities including Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives, the Kids Sports Network and the National Youth Sports Coaches Association. Pop and his wife of 24 years, Erin, team up to offer their time and caring for staff, players, families and the community of San Antonio. They have been blessed with two children, Micky and Jill.

BASKETBALL STAFF

Sam Schuler

Vice President of Player Personnel

Sam Schuler was promoted to the position of Vice President of Player Personnel during the summer of 1999. The reason for the promotion is clear – among his free agent finds as the Spurs Director of Player Personnel are Malik Rose and Jaren Jackson.

Schuler joined the Spurs in the summer of 1994 after spending the previous six seasons as the Director of Player Personnel with the Golden State Warriors. While with the Warriors, he earned league-wide respect by putting together a string of successful mid to late first round draft picks with Tim Hardaway, Tyrone Hill and Latrell Sprewell.

Schuler got his start on the high school level, spending 20 years as a high school coach and physical education instructor. After 17 years at Oak Creek High School in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, he joined the Milwaukee Bucks as a Scout in 1985, as a member of Don Nelson's staff. After spending three seasons with the Bucks he joined Nelson as an Assistant Coach with the Warriors in 1988. He spent one season on the sidelines with the Warriors before being promoted to the team's Director of Player Personnel position.

A 1965 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, Schuler is a native of Blanchardville, Wisconsin. He and his wife Jean – who was a long-time employee of the Milwaukee Bucks – have three adult children, Kimberly, Scott and David.

R.C. Buford

Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Now in his second stint with the Spurs, R.C. Buford has continued to see his titles and responsibilities grow since rejoining the franchise in the summer of 1994. Originally hired as the team's Head Scout, Buford was named the Spurs' Director of Scouting in the summer of 1997. He received another promotion in the summer of 1999, being named Vice President/Assistant General Manager.

Buford began his coaching career at the University of Kansas in 1983. During his five seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year, reaching the 1986 NCAA Final Four and winning the 1988 NCAA Championship.

In the summer of 1988 Buford moved to the NBA, joining the Spurs as an Assistant Coach as part of Larry Brown's staff. He spent four seasons as an assistant with the Spurs, including the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons when the Spurs captured back-to-back Midwest Division titles. He remained with the Spurs through the 1991-92 season.

He then joined Larry Brown as the first assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers. During their tenure, the Clippers enjoyed their best seasons in Los Angeles, posting back-to-back winning seasons and playoff appearances.

Buford served as an Assistant Coach with the University of Florida during the 1993-94 season. The Gators enjoyed the greatest year in school history, culminating in Florida's first NCAA Final Four appearance.

Buford played at Texas A&M University and Oklahoma State before receiving his degree from Friends University.

Buford's wife, Beth, is a former player on the LPGA Tour. They are both active with the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Beth is a member of the Board of Directors while R.C. serves as an honorary member of the Board. R.C. also serves as a Board Member for Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives. They have two children – a son, Chase, and a daughter, C.C.

BASKETBALL STAFF

Hank Egan
Assistant Coach

With over three decades of coaching experience, Hank Egan brings a great deal of knowledge to the Spurs staff as the team's number one Assistant Coach. Prior to joining the Spurs in August of 1994, he spent 23 seasons as an NCAA Division I Head Coach.

A 1960 graduate of the Naval Academy with a bachelor's degree in engineering, Egan got his coaching start in 1966 as an Assistant Coach at the Air Force Academy. In 1971, he was named the Head Coach at Air Force and remained in that position until 1984 when he became the Head Coach at the University of San Diego. He spent 10 seasons as the Head Coach at San Diego before joining the Spurs.

In his collegiate coaching career, Egan posted a 304-311 record. He was named the West Coast Conference Coach of the Year following both the 1985-86 and 1986-87 seasons. During the 1986-87 campaign he led USD to a 24-6 mark and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. That season his squad posted the best opponent field goal percentage in the country, limiting opponents to a .401 mark from the field while giving up just 60.3 points per contest.

During his collegiate career Egan established himself as one of the top defensive coaches in the country. He was the alternate coach to USC's George Raveling for the 1984 U.S. Basketball Team and was one of the coaches at the 1984 Olympic tryouts.

Egan and his wife Judy now call San Antonio home and both are active members of the community. The couple has two children, John and Kelly, and five grandchildren.

Mike Budenholzer
Assistant Coach

Now in his fifth season as an Assistant Coach with the Spurs, Mike Budenholzer is an NBA veteran despite being only 31-years-old. He first joined the Spurs in the summer of 1994 as the team's Video Coordinator and served in that position for two seasons before being named an Assistant Coach.

A four-year letterman in both basketball and golf at Pomona-Pitzer, Budenholzer was named the Outstanding Senior Athlete at Pomona College in 1992-93. During the 1993-94 season, he played professionally in Denmark for the Vejle Basketball Klub, averaging a team-high 27.5 points per game. During that time he also got his start in the coaching business, serving as the Head Coach of the Denmark Women's First Division Team.

In the spring of 1994, Budenholzer joined the Golden State Warriors staff, assisting the team's Video Coordinator before making his move to San Antonio.

Summers are always busy for Coach Bud as he is always involved with the Spurs entry in the Rocky Mountain Revue in Salt Lake. He served as the head coach for the Spurs squad in the 1999 Revue after being an assistant the previous two years.

Budenholzer received a first-hand lesson in coaching at an early age as his father, Vince, spent 25 years as a high school and college basketball coach in Arizona before retiring in 1997.

A native of Holbrook, Arizona, Budenholzer is the youngest of seven children. He has a bachelor's degree in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Pomona College. He and wife Mary Bet have a son, William Vincent, and a daughter, Savoia Elizabeth (Libby).

Russ Bookbinder

Executive Vice President/ Business Operations

Russ Bookbinder serves as the Spurs Executive Vice President of Business Operations. Now in his 13th season with the Spurs, Bookbinder manages the Spurs' day-to-day business operations.

The Spurs have enjoyed tremendous growth in attendance, broadcasting, sponsorship support and community awareness during Bookbinder's leadership. During the 1994-95 season the Spurs achieved a franchise-record attendance mark of 1,214,258 fans attending home games in the Dome and ranked second in NBA attendance. The Spurs have been just as prosperous over the airwaves, establishing one of the most extensive broadcast programming operations in the NBA, which includes a regional radio and television network covering the South Texas Area. For the past four seasons the Spurs have managed a successful program to attract fans from Austin and the San Antonio-Austin corridor by opening an office and launching marketing campaigns in the Capitol city.

Upon his arrival in San Antonio, Bookbinder created a community relations department and the non-profit Spurs Foundation, an organization designed to give back to the community. Since its formation in 1988 the Foundation has generated over $4 million for area youth programs. In addition, he initiated discussions with area school superintendents to establish several programs to motivate students in the areas of self-worth, attendance and drug and substance abuse education. The Spurs' Project GOAL received the 1994 Human and Civil Rights Award from the Texas State Teacher's Association.

During the past four years Bookbinder has worked with the Spurs management team to help design the new SBC Center, which will seat 18,500 for basketball and is scheduled to open in the fall of 2002. He is also coordinating the efforts to attract and develop new sports franchises for the SBC Center. This past year he worked with the San Antonio Sports Foundation and UTSA to create the Coalition for Women's Basketball, whose mission is to help educate and develop fans for women's basketball. The CWB successfully hosted a game in August featuring the USA Olympic Women's basketball team vs. Canada, which attracted 9,000 fans to Freeman Coliseum. The new coalition will also support the efforts of the San Antonio Local Organizing Committee for the 2002 NCAA Women's Final Four and the campaign to attract a WNBA franchise to the Alamo City.

Born and raised in Miami – and a 1974 graduate of the University of Florida – Bookbinder started his career in the sports business in 1976 as the Western Regional Manager for Professional Sports Publications. He has 20 years of experience in the NBA, serving in top management positions with the Dallas Mavericks, San Diego Clippers and Denver Nuggets. Prior to joining the Spurs, Bookbinder was the Director of Corporate Development for Raycom Sports.

Since coming to San Antonio, Bookbinder has been very involved in helping to enhance the sports industry in the Alamo City as a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation. He played a major role in the creation of the Sylvania Alamo Bowl and served as the president of the San Antonio Bowl Association in 1994. He continues to serve on the Bowl's Board of Directors. He was also instrumental in San Antonio's successful hosting of the 1996 NBA All-Star Game and served on the San Antonio Local Organizing Committee for the 1998 NCAA Men's Final Four. Bookbinder is also a member of the Local Committee working to secure a bid for the 2007 Pan American Games.

In 1991, Bookbinder developed SAOne, Inc. the Spurs special event management company that has brought numerous NCAA football and basketball events as well as NHL hockey to San Antonio. The Spurs, in partnership with the Alamodome, will host an NFL preseason game between the Minnesota Vikings and the New Orleans Saints in August 2001.

Bookbinder serves on the National Board of Trustees for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and also is a member of the Board of Directors for the San Antonio Greater Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a member of the Advisory Board of the San Antonio chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Bookbinder is married to the former Tammy Teaff, whose father Grant is the former Head Football Coach at Baylor University and is currently the Executive Director of the American Football Coaches Association. They have two children, a 14-year-old son, Josh and an 11-year-old daughter, Jessy.

SPURS IN THE COMMUNITY

SPURS IN THE COMMUNITY

A great basketball team is more than a collection of superb athletes - it is a partner with its community, solving problems, creating opportunities and enhancing the quality of life.

We all benefit when kids stay in and succeed in school, when we have an educated workforce, when families are strengthened, when neighborhoods are safe, when there is affordable housing and when everyone takes the time and responsibility to make our community an even better place to learn, live and work.

The Spurs Family has been a partner with San Antonians for 27 years and we are truly dedicated to this community. We take tremendous pride in actively serving South Texas - a diverse area with diverse needs - through financial support, recreational and educational programming, publicity and the personal involvement of Spurs management, players (current and former), coaches and the Spurs Coyote. We strive to be a catalyst for community spirit and pride through our organization's myriad of community activities and our nonprofit arm, the Spurs Foundation.

We are honored to be your friends and neighbors and are proud to have so many supporters who have joined with us in our mission. For every assist on the court, the Spurs try to make two in the community. That's a stat that makes the entire organization proud.

The Spurs Care

- Spurs players, coaches, front office personnel, Silver Dancers, and the Spurs Coyote make more than 1,000 appearances in the community each year.
- Annually, the Spurs support more than 2,300 local organizations with in-kind or cash contributions. These in-kind donations (tickets, autographed memorabilia, appearances, etc.) are used to raise thousands of dollars for charitable causes in the San Antonio area.
- The Spurs Education Programs focus on student recognition, literacy/writing activities, community service, artistic creativity, parental involvement, attendance and scholarship funding.
- More than 110,000 student incentives were distributed through the Spurs Education Programs during the 1999-2000 season, and incentives this year include tickets, certificates, scholarships, books, t-shirts, and player visits.
- Former Spurs stars George Gervin and Johnny Moore, and former WNBA player Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil, represent the Spurs at more than 300 grand openings, golf tournaments, commencements, employee rallies, and other assorted events throughout South Texas each year.
- The Spurs Wives organization (d.b.a. Spurs Home Court) has raised and donated more than $60,000 to various area charities in the last five years.
- The Spurs teamed up with the Fannie Mae Foundation in 1993 to form the "Home Team" for homeownership. Since then, 49 homes have been built with ten more to be built during the 2000-2001 season.
- Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $4 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children and youth organizations, and during the 1999-2000 season, donated $650,000 in cash via youth programming, grants, scholarships and charity tickets.

- Proceeds of $102,000 were donated to the American Cancer Society from Tim Duncan's first-ever "Bowling for Dollar$" Charity Bowl-A-Thon, and the success of Tim Duncan's "Beat Cancer" promotion with Sprite, Diamond Shamrock and the Spurs enabled the Cancer Research and Therapy Center to receive a $50,000 contribution in May 2000.
- Spurs Head Coach & General Manager Gregg Popovich adopted the San Antonio Food Bank and spearheaded a successful $50,000 fundraising campaign for their organization.
- Spurs Head Coach & General Manager Gregg Popovich and Spurs guard Avery Johnson donated $15,000 to a neighborhood YMCA to convert two unused tennis courts to outdoor basketball courts.
- Eleven Spurs players purchased charity seats for underprivileged children during the 1999-2000 season.

SPURS IN THE COMMUNITY

The San Antonio Spurs were named the winner of the 2000 Pro Team Community Award, an award program honoring the professional sports franchise that best demonstrates outstanding community involvement and acts as a catalyst for community pride and spirit. This annual award is sponsored by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame, located in Boise, Idaho, and was instituted in 1995 to honor the professional sports franchise which stands above all other sports franchises in making a difference in their communities. The Spurs were chosen from more than 40 entries submitted from Major League Baseball, the National Basketball Association, the National Football League and the National Hockey League. The 2000 Pro Team Community Award selection process is based upon the following elements of a team's overall community outreach program: comprehensiveness; creativity in development and implementation; community acceptance and participation and use of volunteers and staff.

THE SPURS FOUNDATION

Created in 1988, the nonprofit 501(c)(3) Spurs Foundation was established to generate goodwill and financial support for economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The Spurs Foundation's volunteer board includes fans, community leaders, former Spurs players and representatives from the corporate and civic sectors.

Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $4 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children through organizations that provide basic, recreational, and medical needs. During the 1999-2000 season, the Spurs Foundation donated $650,000 in cash toward youth programming, grants, scholarships and charity tickets and had gross revenues of more than $1 million.

In addition to corporate and individual donations, the Spurs Foundation is supported by three major annual fundraisers: the Spurs Scramble Charity Golf Tournament presented by Body Solutions, the Tip-Off Luncheon presented by Southwest Airlines and the Tux-N-Tennies Gala and Auction presented by Southwestern Bell and Southwest Business Corporation. The entire Spurs team and coaching staff participate in these events.

Annually, proceeds from fundraising efforts enable the Spurs Foundation to:

- Fund the Drug-Free Youth Basketball League for more than 20,000 boys and girls ages 6 –17. (The 1999-2000 season marked the Drug-Free League's 10th Anniversary).
- Donate more than 15,000 Spurs tickets to underprivileged youth
- Award more than $100,000 in grants to area children's charities
- Award $20,000 in scholarships to area high school seniors
- Construct ten brand new affordable homes for first time buyers through the "Home Team" partnership
- Partner with David Robinson to recognize achievements of all kinds through Mister Robinson's Neighborhood Student Incentive Program

Spurs Foundation Grants

Each year since its inception in 1988, the Spurs Foundation has awarded grants to nonprofit organizations seeking funding for programs for disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The year 2000 grant disbursement of $128,000 to 27 San Antonio and South Texas area charities was the largest donation in Spurs Foundation history to date. Additionally, four of the local nonprofit children's organizations grant recipients are selected by the Spurs Foundation's volunteer Board of Directors to become Spurs Foundation "featured" youth charities. During 2000-2001, the following youth organizations will receive yearlong publicity in addition to their grants: American Cancer Society/Camp Discovery, Children's Bereavement Center of South Texas, Family Violence Prevention Services and San Antonio Metropolitan Ministries.

Spurs Foundation's Annual Grant Application Process

Organizations that are exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code and assist economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth may apply for a Spurs Foundation grant, annually reviewed by the Spurs Foundation Board of Directors. Applications for 2001-2002 Spurs Foundation grants are available by calling 210/554-7762, sending a request by fax to 210-554-0950 or downloading from the Spurs website at www.spurs.com. All grant applications must be received in the Spurs executive offices by February 23, 2001. Grants will be awarded in June 2001.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH EDUCATION AND RECOGNITION

Mister Robinson's Neighborhood of Achievers

During the 2000-2001 season, thousands of San Antonio students in grades K-12 will be nominated by their teachers for achieving academic excellence, maintaining positive attitudes, increasing TAAS test scores, acting as peer leaders, and/or resisting negative peer influences. Through this program, more than 1,500 students from area schools will receive a pair of Spurs game tickets in "Mister Robinson's Neighborhood", a Mister Robinson's Neighborhood t-shirt and an achievement certificate. David Robinson and the Spurs Foundation purchase the game tickets, and H-E-B Grocery Stores and Nike are additional program sponsors. Austin public schools will also participate in the Mister Robinson's Neighborhood of Achievers program, which is funded in part by the sponsors listed above, as well as various Austin-based companies.

Mister Robinson's Road Trip

Additionally, all Mister Robinson's Achievers have the exclusive opportunity to participate in the Mister Robinson's Road Trip Essay Contest (presented by David Robinson, the Spurs Foundation, H-E-B Grocery Stores, Nike and Southwest Airlines), where four winners, selected by David Robinson, will have the chance to see the Spurs in action on the road! The four essay winners will fly to Dallas on Southwest Airlines to see the Spurs play the Dallas Mavericks, fly back on the team chartered plane and meet David Robinson in person.

Spurs and UPS Support Parental Involvement

Because parental/guardian support and involvement is one of the most important elements in a child's academic and social development, Spurs/United Parcel Service (UPS) Parent(s) of the Game was developed for students in grades K-12 to nominate and reward their parent, parents or guardian for being involved in their education, as well as being outstanding parents and role models. The 1999-2000 season marked this program's first successful year where 41 parents - and even two grandmothers - were honored. During the 2000-2001 season, each Spurs/UPS Parent of the Game will receive Spurs game tickets and a commemorative plaque to remember their exciting night. Additionally, the parents are recognized as the official "Parents of the Game" in a public address announcement on JumboTRON.

Spurs and Nortel Networks Applaud Bexar County Teachers

The Spurs and Nortel Networks recognize the important role teachers play in the lives of children and are pleased to publicly applaud the teachers whose efforts go above and beyond the call of duty for their students. This season marks the eighth year of the Teacher of the Game program where 41 more outstanding public school teachers will be recognized.

Dads Get Involved with their Kids - Through Art

Presented by the Spurs and City Public Service, the My Dad's Involved with Me Art Contest was created for elementary and middle school students and their dads (or another positive male role model) to express through art what they enjoy doing together. Fifty-two student winners will be selected and receive a pair of Spurs tickets for themselves and their dads. Two grand prize works of art will be "unveiled" at the Alamodome. Two schools will receive a $250 gift certificate for art supplies. The program was designed to remind adults that children who enjoy the emotional and social support of a father are dramatically more successful in school, as well as to encourage dads to become more involved in the lives of their children.

Spurs Foundation Awards $20,000 in College Scholarships

Each year, the Spurs Foundation awards 15 college-bound high school seniors with scholarships totaling $20,000, three of which are $3,000 memorial scholarships: the Angelo Drossos Memorial Scholarship, awarded to an academically outstanding Bexar County High School senior who played high school basketball and exhibits financial need, the Colonel Maury Holden Memorial Scholarship, awarded to a graduating Boysville senior and the Craig Martin Memorial Scholarship, awarded to a graduating senior of a North East ISD high school who has a positive outlook, demonstrates a strong work ethic and plans to attend a Texas college. Angelo Drossos was one of the original owners of the Spurs and remained in the majority ownership position until 1988 when he sold the franchise to Red McCombs. Col. Holden was the Spurs treasurer for 20 years, the secretary/treasurer of the Spurs Foundation and a longtime friend of the Spurs family. Craig Martin is the late son of the co-founder of the Drug-Free Youth Basketball League.

Through the Spurs Foundation City Public Service Bright Light Scholarship Program, $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to 10 graduating Bexar County high school seniors. To be eligible for a CPS Bright Light Scholarship, applicants must be ranked in the top 10 percent of their class, have an SAT of 1200 or ACT of 26 and are selected based on academic achievement, school/community leadership, teacher recommendations and evaluation of each applicant's personal narrative. Scholarships are administered through the Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation.

SPURS IN THE COMMUNITY

Additionally, two $500 scholarships are awarded annually to two Bexar County high school graduates who have competed on the state level in one of the University Interscholastic League (UIL) Academic Contests and met additional requirements of the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation (TILF).

Spurs/Texas Jeep Dealers Take Avery to School Essay Contest

For the fourth year, one lucky elementary student will take Avery Johnson to school for writing an "A+" essay about why staying in school and getting and education is important. Nine students are selected as essay finalists and will receive a pair of Spurs game tickets. The winner will host Avery Johnson at his or her school!

Never Be Absent

Because attending school is vital to achieving success in school, the Spurs Foundation, International Bank of Commerce, H-E-B Grocery Stores, City Public Service and Nike sponsor the Never Be Absent program as a tool for teachers and principals to reward students who have maintained outstanding school attendance. This season, one student from each Bexar County public and private school will receive four Spurs game tickets and a Never Be Absent t-shirt and achievement certificate for "Never Being Absent!"

Looking for Cool Kids

The Spurs and City Public Service are looking far and wide for "Cool Kids" in Bexar County schools. Nominated by their teachers or principals, Cool Kids have talents in areas such as music, art, community involvement, leadership, academics, sports, computers, drama, etc. Each Cool Kid selected will be featured on an episode of the "Coyote Clubhouse" airing locally on UPN2 and receive four tickets to a Spurs home game and JumboTRON recognition at the game.

March is NBA Reading Awareness Month

Reading is the foundation required for success in every subject, and the Spurs actively support the NBA's "March is Reading Awareness Month" through a variety of Spurs and corporate sponsored reading initiative programs. In addition, at every home game in March, several children are selected to receive a "favorite" book from a Spurs player on court.

"What'cha Reading" Elementary School Reading Program

The Spurs and Whataburger created the What'cha Reading program to encourage students to spend more of their free time reading. The What'cha Reading program rewards more than 15,000 students for reading improvements, and every student who earns the What'cha Reading achievement certificate receives a coupon good for one free Justaburger, small Fries and small drink and has the opportunity to enter a raffle for dinner, limousine service and four floor Spurs game tickets.

Spurs/Southwestern Bell Slam Dunk Reading Challenge

Third, fourth and fifth graders will have the opportunity to participate in a friendly reading competition to win Spurs game tickets and/or one of three "Reading Time Outs" with Spurs players. Slam Dunk Reading becomes a "challenge" because students work together as a team, and grade levels compete against each other to have the most minutes per class read. There are more than 4,500 total tickets awarded through this reading incentive program, courtesy of Southwestern Bell.

TeamUp Program Encourages Community Service/Heightens Interest In Learning

For the sixth year, the Spurs TeamUp program will encourage more than 250 San Antonio and South Texas middle and high school students to get involved in community service to be eligible for Spurs game tickets and prizes. NBA TeamUp promotes the importance of community service and recognizes young people who demonstrate a commitment to improving the quality of life in their communities. Research has shown that "service learning" promotes a heightened interest in academic learning, personal development and civic responsibility. School service projects include community beautification, mentoring, environmental activities, assorted collections and drives, activities with seniors and more. Spurs TeamUp sponsors include H-E-B Grocery Stores, City Public Service, Taco Cabana and KTFM 102.7.

GROWING HEALTHIER KIDS THROUGH POSITIVE RECREATION

Drug-Free Youth Basketball League

In this 11th successful season, the Pizza Hut/Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, honorarily chaired by Spurs forward Malik Rose and presented by Ultramar Diamond Shamrock, will offer more than 20,000 at-risk young people the opportunity to play basketball, improve their athletic skills and learn the importance of team work, cooperation, sportsmanship and discipline in a drug-free and safe environment. The non-school eight-week league targets youth ranging in age from 7-16 from less affluent city neighborhoods.

Created in 1991 by Spurs Head Coach and General Manager Gregg Popovich and President of the Kids Sports Network, Frank Martin, after noticing a lack of anti-drug recreational programs, the league plays at 75 locations supported by 32 organizations throughout South Texas.

Every player wearing the Drug-Free League uniform must play at least one quarter of each game and recite the Drug-Free Pledge out loud before the game:

> "As a member of the Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, I pledge to:
> - Be drug and alcohol-and tobacco-free and encourage others to be so as well;
> - Exhibit good sportsmanship and fair play;
> - Work hard to be the best that I can be;
> - Respect my opponent, all officials, the rules of the league and especially myself."

Additionally, the Spurs will honor a number of Drug-Free Youth Basketball League teams as the "City Public Service/Spurs Good Sports of the Week" at regular season Spurs games.

Good Sportsmanship Touted - Respect for Self, Others and the Game

The Spurs and Luby's, with support from Christus Santa Rosa, rewards students for physical fitness and students who foster the ideals of sportsmanship: ethical behavior, fair play, positive attitude and integrity. Through the Gear Up for Good Sportsmanship Program, 25,000 achievements certificates (with a coupon for a complimentary Spurs Kids meal at Luby's) will be distributed to Bexar County elementary schools' physical education teachers to reward to deserving students.

NBA and Spurs Support Sportsmanship

The NBA/WNBA Student Athlete Sportmanship Program, implemented by the NBA in conjunction with the National Federation of High School Associations and the Canadian School Sports Foundation, will select one area high school male and female basketball player and one high school basketball coach who best represent the ideals of sportsmanship. These winners will be recognized on court at a Spurs home game.

Spurs/Nike Youth Basketball Camp

Each summer, girls and boys eight years and older can attend full or half day Spurs/Nike Youth Basketball Camps. An overnight camp is also offered for boys 10 and older. Each weeklong camp's focus is on basketball fundamentals and the Spurs winning attitude. Camp instructors include area college and high school coaches with instructional visits from current and former Spurs players and coaches. For more information, call the camp hotline at 1-800-688-SPUR or 210/554-7794.

NBA 2ball

This is the fifth year of Spurs NBA 2ball for youth ages 9-17. Administered by the Kids Sports Network at more than 20 sites in San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Austin, this two-player, 60 second skills competition is designed to teach youngsters fundamental basketball skills such as shooting, rebounding and passing while emphasizing teamwork. City Public Service is a sponsor.

REACHING OUT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Auction/Raffle/Volunteer Time Donations

Each year, more than 2,300 charity organizations, fundraisers, schools and other community events receive donations or in-kind contributions from the Spurs. These donations range from tickets and autographed memorabilia to player and Coyote appearances, which raise thousands of dollars for charitable causes in the San Antonio. For information on any of the Spurs community outreach programs, please call 210-554-7762.

"Home Team" Sold Signs in 49 Yards

The Spurs and Fannie Mae Foundation teamed up to form the "Home Team" in October 1993. The partnership was developed to educate the general public on how to obtain their dreams of home ownership, as well as revitalize area neighborhoods. With funds from the Fannie Mae Foundation and the Spurs Foundation, 50 new houses have been constructed or renovated to date, and 50 families are now enjoying the American dream of home ownership.

During the 2000-2001 season, the "Home Team" will build 10 more houses. Neighborhood Housing Services, a nonprofit organization that provides housing for low-and moderate-income families, secures the home sites, oversees construction and secures the first-time homebuyers.

Recycling Effort to Collect Sporting Goods

At the Gear Up for Kids Sporting Goods Drive, the Spurs, UPS and area Luby's will collect and recycle gently used sporting gear (bikes, balls, gloves, etc.) to be donated to underprivileged children. More than 600 Spurs game tickets will be awarded to donors.

Spurs of the Moment

The Spurs Family always has time for the community. Spurs players, former players, coaches, the Coyote, Silver Dancers and management staff frequently attend community parades, school assemblies, hospital visits, nonprofit events and fundraising benefits.

Former Spurs George Gervin and Johnny Moore are full-time community representatives, and former WNBA player and Olympic bronze medalist Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil recently joined the Spurs team. All three take their leadership abilities out to the community, serving the community as celebrity judges; motivational, career day, commencement and guest speakers; ribbon cutters; hospital visitors and more. In addition to former Spurs greats, the Spurs Coyote and the Silver Dancers make personal appearances, as they frequently attend community parades, school assemblies, hospital visits, nonprofit events and fundraising benefits.

Spurs players, coaches and management staff also make public appearances for charity events, hospital visits, career days, speaking engagements and other events. For information on booking a speaker, please send a written request by fax to 210-472-2975 or by mail to the Spurs Community Relations Department, Attention: Spurs Appearance Coordinator at 100 Montana, San Antonio, Texas 78203. Requests should be made at least four weeks prior to the event and include all pertinent information including a map to the event site.

The Spurs Wheelchair Basketball Team, a member of the National Wheelchair Basketball Association (NWBA) will begin their 2000-2001 season with an October halftime performance. The team functions as a physical and emotional rehabilitation source, competes throughout Texas and the U.S., and scrimmages during at least three halftimes of select Spurs home games. The local team, comprised of individuals ages 15 to 55, is a nonprofit organization, and the team's funding comes from individual and corporate supporters including the Spurs Foundation. For information on joining the team, hosting a speaker, or to make a donation, please call 210-554-7762.

THE ALAMODOME

The Alamodome - which opened on May 15, 1993 - is unlike any other stadium in the world due to its design and versatility. The facility has a cable-suspended roof, a retractable seating system, a flexible floor grid system, formal entries and large food court areas.

The Spurs moved into the Alamodome prior to the start of the 1993-94 season.

But the Alamodome is used for more than the Spurs. With the addition of the Alamodome, the city of San Antonio has become a major player in the sports world. The first major sporting event in the Alamodome was the U.S. Olympic Festival-'93, which took place in July of 1993.

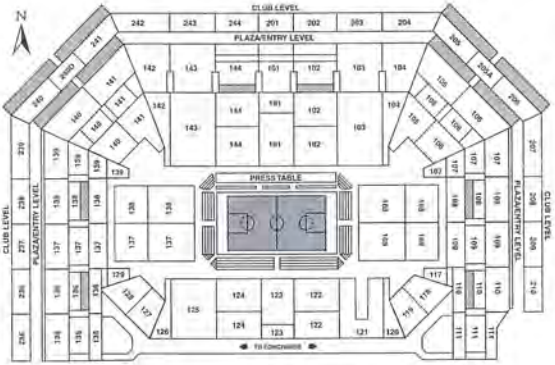
Since that time the Dome has played host to some of the biggest events in the sporting world including the 1996 NBA All-Star Game and the 1998 NCAA Final Four. In addition, the Alamodome has hosted numerous NCAA football and basketball games, NFL games, NHL games, world-championship boxing matches and concerts. San Antonio and the Dome also serve as the home of the annual Sylvania Alamo Bowl.

For Spurs games, the Alamodome holds 20,557 on a nightly basis. In addition, for selected games, the Spurs open the upper level of the facility, pushing capacity to over 34,000. In its basketball configuration the Alamodome features 32 luxury suites and a section of over 3,500 club level seats.

The total cost of the Alamodome was $186 million and, thanks to a half-cent sales tax that was in effect from 1989-94, the Dome is completely debt free.

SPURS TICKETS

Individual game tickets can be purchased in person at the Spurs Ticket Office located in the Southwest corner of the Alamodome. Tickets can also be purchased at all Ticketmaster Ticket Centers as well as the Spurs Shop, located at 600 East Market Street. To order single game tickets by phone call Ticketmaster at (210) 223-DUNK.



SBC CENTER

On August 23, 2000, ground was officially broken on The SBC Center - the new 18,500-seat premier sports and family entertainment facility on the grounds of the Freeman Coliseum that the San Antonio Spurs, the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, and countless other entertainment, sporting and community events will call "home" in the Fall of 2002.

Overwhelmingly approved by Bexar County voters in November 1999, the SBC Center - named for the venue's naming rights partner, SBC Communications Inc. - has been designed to offer something for everyone and is custom-made for San Antonio.

In fact, Spurs Chairman Peter Holt says that the SBC Center will be "the envy of the NBA." In addition to providing dramatically improved sight lines and the intimacy of being closer to the action, the Spurs expect the SBC Center to provide a high-tech environment for events and business meetings, with state-of-the-art video displays, scoreboards and Internet access.

"We will be able to call upon SBC's expertise in data communications to help all fans enjoy the ultimate interactive experience - either from their seats or from anticipated fan zones," said Holt.

The SBC Center will have a South Texas look and feel, both inside and out, capturing the diversity of the region and the building tenants. Plans call for construction to be completed in time for the start of the Spurs 2002-2003 season opener.

1999-2000 SEASON NOTES

SEASON IN REVIEW: The Spurs started the season with a franchise-best 14-3 mark and then dipped through an 11-12 stretch before turning around and finishing the season 28-14... on 3/14 vs. Atlanta, Sean Elliott returned to the NBA after having a kidney transplant on 8/16/99... he started each of the team's last 19 games, averaging 6.0 points in 20.6 minutes... the injury bug bit Tim Duncan for the first time in his career... after missing four games (2/25-3/2) due to a lower abdominal strain, Duncan missed the final four games of the regular season and all of the 2000 Playoffs after suffering a torn left lateral meniscus on 4/11... the Spurs advanced to the playoffs for the 10th time in David Robinson's 11-year career (the only season they missed the playoffs was in 1996-97 when Robinson played in just six games)... in their NBA history, the Spurs have earned a playoff berth in 20 of their 24 seasons... only the Lakers and the Trail Blazers – each with 23 post-season-appearances – have made more trips to the playoffs during that 24-year span... along with the Spurs, the Suns have made 20 playoff appearances since 1976-77.

MR. DOUBLE-DOUBLE: In his three NBA seasons, Duncan has recorded 154 double-doubles, which is the most in the NBA over that time... Duncan recorded a double-double in 60 of 74 games during the 1999-2000 season and recorded the first triple-double of his career on 3/25 vs. Cleveland (17 points, 17 boards, 11 assists)... in 1998-99, Tim Duncan led the NBA in double-doubles for the second straight season... here is a look at the top five double-double men since the start of the 1997-98 season:

PLAYER	DOUBLE-DOUBLES
1. Tim Duncan, San Antonio	154
2. Shaquille O'Neal, Los Angeles	132
3. Kevin Garnett, Minnesota	127
4. Chris Webber, Sacramento	121
5. Dikembe Mutombo, Atlanta	119

BETTER WITH TIME: David Robinson got better and better as the 1999-2000 season went on... his scoring average jumped from 13.1 ppg in November to 22.0 ppg in April... he scored at least 20 points in 15 of his last 25 games and averaged 20.7 points in his last 45 games... along with his scoring average, Robinson's field goal percentage increased in each of the final four months... here is Robinson's month-by-month breakdown:

MONTH	SCORING AVERAGE	FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE
November	13.1	.500 (73-146)
December	15.0	.423 (76-173)
January	18.5	.500 (90-180)
February	20.3	.503 (87-173)
March	20.1	.523 (113-215)
April	22.0	.542 (78-144)

FROM DOWNTOWN: In his first season with San Antonio Terry Porter shot .435 (90-207) from three-point land, which is the highest single-season 3PT-FG percentage in Spurs history... it was the fourth time in his 15-year career that Porter has hit over .400 from three-point range and he topped his previous career high of .415 (130-313) which he set during the 1990-91 season.

HOME COOKING: The Spurs started the season winning nine straight games at home and ended with a 31-10 record at the Dome... San Antonio won 13 consecutive home games to end the 1998-99 season and extended its streak to 22 straight wins at home before the Wizards defeated the Spurs in the Dome on 12/11/99.

THE CENTURY CLUB: Since the start of the 1997-98 season, only 28 times have opponents reached the century mark against the Spurs in 214 regular-season games... during the 1999-2000 season a total of 11 opponents scored 100-or-more vs. the Spurs... in the Alamodome, only 10 opponents have scored 100 points in the Spurs 107 regular-season games dating back to the 1997-98 season.

TOUGH D: Opponents averaged only 90.2 points per game against the Spurs during the 1999-2000 season, which was the lowest in the league... in addition opponents shot just .425 from the field against the Spurs, which was the fifth lowest percentage in the NBA.

OUCH: The Spurs lost a total of 244 player games due to injury this season, topping the 99 games they lost in the shortened 1998-99 campaign... last year, regular starters missed only four games, compared to 76 this season... Sean Elliott missed 63 games while on the injured list following a kidney transplant... Tim Duncan missed eight games, the only eight in his career, Mario Elie missed three and David Robinson missed two... 12 different players missed games due to injury and another (Antonio Daniels) left a game because of an injury.

OLDER AND WISER: Nine of the players on the Spurs 14-man roster at the end of the 1999-2000 season had completed 10 or more seasons in the NBA... the Spurs had more 10-year NBA veterans than any other team in the league... were also the most experienced team in the league, with an average of 8.71 NBA seasons per player, and the oldest team, with an average age of 31.28.

QUICK FACTS: When both Tim Duncan and David Robinson recorded double-doubles, San Antonio was 18-5... the Spurs were 48-8 when they shot better from the field than their opponent... the Spurs were 19-3 when shooting .500 or better from the field... when the Spurs had more assists than their opponents they were 42-8... San Antonio was 31-5 when opponents scored less than 90 points... the Spurs were 48-12 when scoring 90 or more points, including 28-3 when they reached the century mark... the Spurs were 41-4 when they started the fourth quarter with the lead and 40-12 when they led at the half... San Antonio was 31-11 in games decided by 10 or more points... the Spurs point differential of +5.9 (96.2 vs. 90.2) was the third highest in the NBA behind the Lakers and Portland.

PLAYERS ACHIEVING MILESTONES: On 12/7 at Indiana, Avery Johnson recorded 3 assists and passed Johnny Moore as the Spurs all-time assists leader... on 2/27 at Minnesota, AJ reached the 5,000-career assists plateau... David Robinson scored his 17,000th career point on 12/11 vs. Washington and recorded his 18,000th career point on 4/5 vs. Sacramento... with a career-high 7 steals vs. Houston on 2/18, Robinson passed Alvin Robertson to become the Spurs all-time career steals leader... on 12/18, Robinson played in his 710th game, passing George Gervin as the Spurs all-time leader in NBA games played... on 2/6 at Utah, Terry Porter appeared in the 1,100th game of his NBA career and, on 2/15 at Cleveland, Jerome Kersey appeared in his 1,100th NBA game... the pair became the 10th and 11th active players with 1,100-or-more games played.

NBA IN THE COMMUNITY

NBA players have worked as hard off the court as they have on it, providing help in numerous communities through outreach programs, charitable foundations and public service announcements. The NBA takes pride in serving the needs of young people and providing opportunities for them to reach above and beyond their goals.

The NBA's TeamUp program, a league-wide community service initiative, is the heart of the NBA's volunteer efforts and encourages youth to contribute to the community. Over the past five seasons, more than 200,000 youth have participated in NBA TeamUp-related projects, an impressive measure of the program's success. They have made differences in the lives of many people and contributed to their own communities.

Another demonstration of the NBA's commitment to youth is its partnership with America's Promise — The Alliance for Youth, led by General Colin Powell, and Youth Service America, where youth can further develop positive attitudes and contribute to their communities.

The NBA/WNBA Sportsmanship Initiative, is a two-fold program that consists of the NBA Student-Athlete Sportsmanship Program and the annual NBA/WNBA Sportsmanship Award. Partnering with the National Federation of State High Schools and the Canadian School Sports Federation, the mission of the initiative is to focus on fostering the ideals of sportsmanship — ethical behavior, fair play, and integrity — in amateur and professional basketball players.

The NBA Reading Initiative in conjunction with Reading Is Fundamental (RIF) and Scholastic, Inc., highlighted by 'March is NBA Reading Month', promotes literacy, encourages players to donate their time reading to students at schools and share with fans their favorite books, reading role models and why they like reading.

Other programs the league is currently involved in are Prevent Child Abuse America, now in its 13th year of existence; the King Holiday and Black History Month initiative to recognize the achievements and contributions of African-Americans in history; assisting Gallaudet University in its mission to educate the deaf; the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund, providing contributions and support since 1987; and the National Wheelchair Basketball Association.

KEY DATES IN HISTORY

OCTOBER 10, 1973

In the first game in San Antonio history, the Spurs fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena...Rich Jones led the Spurs in scoring with 25 points...the Spurs lost their first four games before claiming their first win on 10/16/73 when they beat the Virginia Squires 116-106.

JANUARY 30, 1974

After a month of fighting, Angelo Drossos pulled off the biggest deal in Spurs history, purchasing George Gervin from the Virginia Squires...the transaction wasn't a simple one due to legal battles between the Spurs, the Squires and the ABA League Office...in fact, at one point, the 21-year-old Gervin went into hiding for a week as the three parties battled it out...in the end Drossos and the Spurs won, and the rest, as they say, is history.

JANUARY 28, 1975

On this date the city of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game...on the West squad were three Spurs, George Gervin, James Silas and Swen Nater...but the East team dominated the game, posting a 151-124 win in front of 10,449 in the HemisFair Arena...the coaches that night were Kevin Loughery and Larry Brown.

OCTOBER 22, 1976

The Spurs made their NBA debut, beating the 76ers 121-118 in Philadelphia...Billy Paultz paced the Spurs with 27 points...also making his NBA debut that night was Julius Erving of the Sixers...later in the week, on 10/27/76, the Spurs played their first NBA game in the HemisFair Arena, beating Phoenix 115-106 behind a 41-point effort by Larry Kenon...the Spurs finished their first NBA season with a 44-38 record and a trip to the playoffs.

APRIL 9, 1978

George Gervin set an NBA record scoring 33 points in the second quarter as the Spurs fell to New Orleans 153-132 in the final game of the regular season...earlier in the day David Thompson had scored 73 points and entering the game Gervin knew that he needed to score 58 points to edge out Thompson for the 1978 NBA scoring title...Gervin came through...he had 53 at halftime and finished the game with 63 points - despite sitting out the fourth quarter - to claim his first scoring title.

APRIL 15, 1983

Spurs announced their All Decade Team...on the squad were George Gervin, Artis Gilmore, Mike Mitchell, James Silas and Mark Olberding...the Iceman was named the Spurs Player of the Decade...the same night Artis Gilmore scored his 20,000th career point.

FEBRUARY 28, 1984

The Spurs retired the number 13 worn by James Silas...it was the first number ever retired by the Spurs franchise and Silas earned the honor...in his career he appeared in 618 games, scoring 10,290 points and handing out 2,406 assists...Silas – who was an original Spur – enjoyed his best season in 1975-76 when he averaged 23.8 points, 5.4 assists and 4.0 rebounds...his career was cut short by a knee injury that he suffered in November of 1976.

MAY 17, 1987

The Spurs won the NBA Draft Lottery in New York...Bob Bass was on hand with a lucky Red Chameleon...the good luck charm worked as the Spurs beat out six other teams and won the number one pick in the 1987 Draft, which they used to select All-Star center David Robinson.

DECEMBER 5, 1987

On this night the Spurs retired the number 44 jersey worn by George Gervin...15,786 were on hand to pay tribute to the greatest player in Spurs history...in his 12 seasons with the Spurs, the Iceman scored 23,602 points and led the NBA in scoring four times.

KEY DATES IN HISTORY

MAY 27, 1988
Red McCombs purchased the Spurs for $47 million, becoming the first principal owner of the franchise ...the transaction took place after months of negotiations between McCombs and the Spurs original majority owner, Angelo Drossos.

NOVEMBER 4, 1989
In his first NBA game rookie center David Robinson led the Spurs to a 106-98 win over the Lakers in front of a crowd of 15,868 in the HemisFair Arena...Robinson didn't miss a beat despite the fact that he had spent the two previous years serving as a Navy ensign, stationed at King's Bay, GA...the Admiral finished the game with 23 points and 17 rebounds.

MARCH 26, 1993
On this date a group of 22 investors purchased the franchise from Red McCombs...the two leaders of the group were Bob Coleman and Robert McDermot...the original deal was struck on 2/19/93 between the group and McCombs, then a month later the move – with some minor changes – was approved by the NBA League Office.

MAY 20, 1993
The end of an era...after calling the HemisFair Arena home for 20 years the Spurs played their final game in the Arena falling to the Suns 102-100 in Game 6 of their Western Conference Semifinal series...in those 20 seasons, the Spurs played 893 regular season and playoff games in the Arena, attracting 9,383,257 fans.

MAY 23, 1995
On this date the NBA announced its 1994-95 Most Valuable Player - Mr. David Robinson...the Admiral led the Spurs to a 62-20 record - the best mark in the NBA in 1994-95 - and became the first player in San Antonio history to win the award...Robinson was among league leaders in five categories: scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, steals and field goal percentage.

FEBRUARY 11, 1996
One of the most exciting weekends in San Antonio history was capped with the 46th Annual NBA All-Star Game...a crowd of 36,037 packed the Alamodome and saw the East defeat the West 129-118 despite solid efforts from Spurs All-Stars David Robinson and Sean Elliott...the entire 1996 NBA All-Star Weekend was a hit as, for three days, the eyes of the world were focused on the Alamo City.

MAY 6, 1996
In Springfield, Massachusetts, George Gervin was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame...the Iceman is the only Spur ever to be elected to the Hall of Fame...the honor is one that Gervin deserves...in his 14-year professional career he scored 26,595 points which is the eighth highest total in history.

MAY 17, 1997
Ten years after winning the 1987 NBA Draft Lottery, the Spurs won the 1997 Lottery and the right to select Wake Forest star Tim Duncan...winning the lottery was one of the few bright spots for the Spurs during the 1996-97 season...they limped through the year without David Robinson and others, finishing with a 20-62 mark.

MARCH 20, 1998
On this date the Spurs retired the number 00 of point guard Johnny Moore...in his nine seasons with the Spurs, Moore appeared in 519 games, averaging 9.4 points and 7.4 assists per game...Moore – whose career was cut short by Desert Fever – joined George Gervin and James Silas becoming just the third player in Spurs history to have their number retired by the franchise.

JUNE 25, 1999
An Avery Johnson 18-foot jumper with 47.0 seconds left gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead over the New York Knicks in Madison Square Garden in Game 5 of the 1999 NBA Finals...neither team scored another point, as the Spurs held on to win the game and capture their first NBA Championship.

1973-74 SEASON NOTES

- The San Antonio Spurs were formed in the summer of 1973 when the Dallas Chaparrals of the ABA were sold to a group of San Antonio investors and moved to the Alamo City.
- Original ownership group was made up of 27 individuals, led by John Schaefer, Red McCombs, Art Burdick and Angelo Drossos.
- The first game in franchise history was a 121-106 loss to the San Diego Conquistadors on 10/10/73 in front of 5,879 fans in the HemisFair Arena... the Spurs starting five that night were Rich Jones, Goo Kennedy, Bob Netolicky, Joe Hamilton and James Silas.
- In November the Spurs obtained Swen Nater from the Virginia Squires in exchange for cash and draft picks... Nater was the Spurs leading rebounder in both 1973-74 and 1974-75.
- On 1/30/74 - in perhaps the biggest move in franchise history - the Spurs purchased George Gervin from the Virginia Squires... the Iceman went on to play in 11 straight All-Star Games for the Spurs.

1974-75 SEASON NOTES

- The City of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game... a crowd of 10,449 was on hand in the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on 1/28/75... the Western squad featured three Spurs - George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas.
- During the off-season Angelo Drossos was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and John Begzos was named the Spurs General Manager.
- On 12/13/74 the Spurs hired Bob Bass as their Head Coach, replacing Tom Nissalke.
- George Gervin established himself as a true star... during the regular season he was 7th in the ABA in scoring, averaging 23.4 ppg, and was also among league leaders in rebounds and blocks... Gervin was named to the All-ABA Second Team and appeared in his second ABA All-Star Game... but Gervin's big breakthrough came in the post-season when Bob Bass moved Iceman from small forward to two-guard... Gervin averaged 34.0 ppg in the series vs. Indiana and the rest, as they say, is history.
- On 2/5/75 George Gervin scored 51 points as the Spurs beat Memphis 143-119... Gervin's 51 points that night is the Spurs franchise record for the most points scored in an ABA game.

1975-76 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made a pair of big moves prior to the start of the season... on 6/3/75 the Spurs sent Swen Nater to the New York Nets for Larry Kenon... in a related move on the same day the Spurs obtained Mike Gale from the Nets for cash... then on 9/8/75 the Spurs sent Chuck Terry, Rich Jones, Bobby Warren and Kim Hughes to the Nets in exchange for Billy Paultz... the moves paid off as both Kenon and Paultz were ABA All-Stars during the 1975-76 campaign.

- James Silas - the Spurs leading scorer and playmaker during the season - broke his right ankle in the first game of their playoff series with the Nets... the injury put a damper on a great season for Silas... he was the first Spur ever named to the All-ABA First Team... he finished the season ranked sixth in the ABA in scoring, fourth in FG percentage, fourth in FT percentage, fifth in assists and ninth in steals.

- The Spurs ranked second in the ABA in attendance, averaging 8,003 fans per game... the highlight was a then-record crowd of 11,717 who watched a 112-109 loss to the Nets on 11/15/75.

- As a team the Spurs shot an incredible .815 (1905-2337) from the free throw line during the 1975-76 season... five Spurs shot .800 or better from the line... 1977-78 SEASON NOTES

- During the summer of 1977, the roof at the HemisFair Arena was raised to accommodate 6,000 new seats.
- The Spurs got off to a slow start as injuries sidelined James Silas (knee), George Karl (knee) and Mike Gale (ankle)... after starting 16-14 the Spurs got hot at midseason to claim their first NBA Division Title... at one point, the Spurs posted 18 wins in a 22-game period.
- Both George Gervin and Larry Kenon were named starters in the 1978 NBA All-Star Game which was played in Atlanta on 2/5.
- George Gervin turned in one of the greatest single game performances in franchise history on 4/9 in New Orleans... going into the final day of the season Gervin and David Thompson were battling for the NBA Scoring Title... Thompson had played earlier in the day and appeared to claim the title as he poured in 73 points... but Gervin wasn't ready to concede the title... by halftime of the Spurs-Jazz game, Ice had 53 points - thanks to 33 points in the second quarter, which still stands as the most points ever scored in a single quarter... the Spurs lost the game 153-132 but Gervin finished with 63 points and claimed his first of four NBA Scoring Titles.

1979-80 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs purchased the contract of Kevin Restani from Milwaukee... the Spurs also obtained guard Johnny Moore from Seattle... but Moore - who appeared in 519 regular season games with the Silver and Black - was released during the preseason and didn't see his first action with the Spurs until the 1980-81 season.
- The Spurs spent the entire season battling to stay above the .500 mark... on 3/1 Bob Bass replaced Doug Moe as Head Coach.
- On 1/16 the Spurs sent Billy Paultz to Houston in exchange for John Shumate.
- Once again, George Gervin was the big gun for the Spurs... he was named the MVP of the 1980 NBA All-Star Game as he had 34 points and 10 rebounds in the contest ... on 1/8 vs. Denver, Gervin exploded for 53 points, which is the most points ever scored in the HemisFair Arena, where the Spurs played from '73-74 through '92-93... and, of course, the Iceman won his third straight NBA Scoring Title, averaging a career-best 33.1 points per game.

1980-81 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs named Stan Albeck Head Coach.
- The Spurs, the Houston Rockets and the expansion Dallas Mavericks were all placed in the Midwest Division in the Western Conference.
- The Spurs were busy in the off-season... draft picks Reggie Johnson and Michael Wiley were instant contributors for the Spurs... after being waived the previous season, Johnny Moore was re-signed and led the team in assists in his first NBA season... and finally, to add experience and size, the Spurs signed free agent George Johnson and obtained Dave Corzine in a trade with Washington.
- "The Bruise Brothers" were officially born on 12/30 as the Spurs handed out free posters which featured George Johnson, Dave Corzine, Kevin Restani, Paul Griffin, Mark Olberding and Reggie Johnson.
- George Johnson became the first Spur to win an NBA Blocked Shots title, averaging 3.39 blocks per game... he put his name in the Spurs record-books on 2/24 vs. Golden State... in the Spurs 131-126 win Johnson set a pair of Spurs franchise records - the most blocks in a game, with 13, and the most blocks in a half, with 11 in the second.

1981-82 SEASON NOTES

- The end of an era came in June as the Spurs sent James Silas - the last original Spur and team captain - to Cleveland... Silas spent nine years in San Antonio and is one of just three players in franchise history to have had their jersey retired.
- The Spurs started the season with a 9-1 mark and held the top spot in the Midwest Division the entire season.
- On 12/24 the Spurs obtained Mike Mitchell and Roger Phegley from Cleveland in exchange for Ron Brewer and Reggie Johnson.
- In a record-setting game on 3/6 the Spurs posted a 171-166 triple-overtime win over Milwaukee in the HemisFair Arena... the 171 points by the Spurs is a club record for the most points scored in a game and the 337 points scored by both teams is the second highest combined point total in NBA history.
- Three different Spurs won individual statistical titles in the league... George Gervin captured his fourth NBA scoring title, averaging 32.3 ppg... George Johnson won his second consecutive blocked shots title, averaging 3.12 bpg... and second-year guard Johnny Moore led the NBA in assists, averaging 9.6 assists per contest.

1984-85 SEASON NOTES

- Cotton Fitzsimmons was named Head Coach in May.
- The Spurs welcomed several new faces during the season... first round draft pick Alvin Robertson was an instant contributor as a rookie... guard John Lucas was traded to Houston on 10/4/84... then in December the Spurs made four deals in a 10-day period: Mark McNamara was sent to Kansas City for Billy Knight... Jeff Cook was obtained from Cleveland in exchange for Edgar Jones and cash... Marc Iavaroni was acquired from the Sixers for a draft choice... and, finally, Fred Roberts was shipped to Utah for a pair of second round picks.
- Mike Mitchell led the team in scoring, averaging 22.2 ppg... this broke a streak of eight straight seasons in which George Gervin had led the Spurs in scoring... Mitchell and Gervin both hit point plateaus during the season... Mitchell scored his 10,000th career point vs. Cleveland on 11/10 and Iceman scored his 25,000th point on 2/22 at Phoenix.
- Johnny Moore finished the season ranked third in the NBA in assists, with 10.0 apg, and ranked second in the league in steals, with 2.79 spg... Moore turned in one of the best games of his life vs. Golden State on 1/8 when he finished with 26 points, 13 assists, 11 rebounds and 9 steals.
- The Spurs set a franchise record, shooting .513 percent from the field during the 1984-85 season.

1985-86 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season there was a major debate as to whether the Spurs would continue to play in the HemisFair Arena or move to the Freeman Coliseum.
- An era ended on 10/24 as the Spurs traded George Gervin to Chicago in exchange for David Greenwood.
- Tragedy struck the Spurs on 12/26 when point guard Johnny Moore was hospitalized with Desert Fever... the sickness ended the season for Moore and cut his promising career short... after contracting the disease Moore returned to play in 112 games with the Spurs, but never regained the form he had shown in his early days.
- Alvin Robertson was the Spurs bright spot during the 1985-86 season... the second-year guard led the NBA in steals, averaging 3.67 per contest... he set NBA records for the most steals in a single season, with 301, and for the highest steals-per-game average, with 3.67 spg... he recorded one of four quadruple-doubles in NBA history finishing with 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals vs. the Suns on 2/18.

1987-88 SEASON NOTES

- The biggest day of the season occurred during the summer and happened off the court... on 6/22 the Spurs used the number one pick in the 1987 NBA Draft to select David Robinson of the Naval Academy... on the same day the Spurs shipped aging center Artis Gilmore to Chicago in exchange for a second-round selection in the 1988 Draft.
- Robinson signed a contract with the Spurs on 11/6 and - before beginning his two-year tour with the Navy – the Admiral witnessed the Spurs lose to the defending NBA Champion Lakers 133-124.
- The Spurs paid tribute to George Gervin on 12/5 as his #44 jersey was retired by the franchise, joining James Silas as the second player in Spurs history to have his number retired.

1988-89 SEASON NOTES

- On 5/28 Red McCombs became full owner of the Spurs, purchasing the team from his fellow investors for $47 million... one of McCombs first moves was to fire Bob Weiss and hire Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- The Spurs finished the season with a 21-61 record... the Spurs were just 3-38 on the road during the year and set a club record with 20-straight losses on the road.
- A total of 22 players suited up for the Spurs during the season and Greg Anderson was the only player to appear in all 82 games for the Spurs.
- Rookie Willie Anderson was one of the few bright spots for San Antonio... he was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team and he became the first Spur rookie ever to lead the team in scoring, averaging 18.6 points per game... Anderson was the runner-up in Rookie of the Year voting behind Mitch Richmond of the Kings.

1989-90 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made several moves during the off-season and assembled a new-look team for the 1989-90 season... on 5/28 the Spurs obtained All-Star forward Terry Cummings from Milwaukee in exchange for Alvin Robertson... in the 1989 NBA Draft the Spurs selected forward Sean Elliott with the third overall choice... and on 8/28 the Spurs sent Johnny Dawkins and Jay Vincent to the Sixers in exchange for Maurice Cheeks, David Wingate and Christian Welp... in addition, Caldwell Jones and Zarko Paspalj were signed as free agents... of course the biggest addition was David Robinson, who completed his two-year Navy commitment... in all nine new faces were on the Spurs 1989-90 roster.

- All the moves worked as the Spurs set what was an NBA record at the time for the biggest turnaround between two seasons, increasing their win total by 35 over the 1988-89 campaign (56 wins vs. 21 in '88-89).

- David Robinson was named the NBA Rookie of the Month each month of the season, joining Ralph Sampson as only the second player in NBA history to claim a clean sweep of the Rookie of the Month award. (Tim Duncan also accomplished the feat during the 1997-98 season).

- The Spurs made one final big move during the season, sending Mo Cheeks to the Knicks in exchange for Rod Strickland on 2/21... on the same day the Spurs traded guard Vernon Maxwell to the Rockets for cash.

1990-91 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season, the Spurs picked up Paul Pressey and Sidney Green via trades and Dwayne Schintzius, Tony Massenburg and Sean Higgins in the 1990 NBA Draft.
- David Robinson was the top vote-getter in the Western Conference and earned the starting center spot in the 1991 NBA All-Star Game... Robinson led the NBA in rebounding, becoming the first Spur ever to capture an NBA Rebounding Title.
- The Spurs 55-27 record could have been better, but guard Rod Strickland missed 21 games after breaking his hand in a fight and in the 21 games he missed, the Spurs were just 10-11.
- The Spurs got win number 1,000 in franchise history on 2/26 with a 102-101 overtime win over Portland.
- Terry Cummings scored his 15,000th point on 4/5 at Chicago.

1991-92 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs obtained forward Antoine Carr from the Kings on 9/23 in exchange for Dwayne Schintzius... in December the Spurs signed a pair of free agents - Donald Royal and Vinnie Johnson - and waived two popular players - Avery Johnson and Jud Buechler.
- After missing the first six weeks of the season due to a contract dispute, Rod Strickland joined the Spurs on 12/23.
- Following a rough stretch in December and January, Vice President of Basketball Operations Bob Bass replaced Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- On 3/21, in just his third season with the Spurs, David Robinson passed George Gervin and became the Spurs all-time career leader in blocked shots.
- The Spurs season came to a grinding halt when David Robinson went down with a torn ligament in his left thumb... Robinson underwent surgery on 4/1 and missed the final 14 games of the season... with Robinson and Willie Anderson out of the line-up the Spurs were swept by the Suns in the First Round of the playoffs.

1992-93 SEASON NOTES

- Under new Head Coach Jerry Tarkanian the Spurs started the season 1-4... the Tarkanian era didn't last long... on 12/18 - with the team posting a 9-11 record - Tark was fired... 24 hours later he was replaced by John Lucas... the team responded by winning 24 of their next 28 after the coaching change.
- The Spurs also made some changes on the court... point guard Avery Johnson was signed as a free agent on 11/19 and on 12/9 the Spurs obtained J.R. Reid from Charlotte in exchange for Sidney Green and a first round draft choice... other new faces included Dale Ellis and Lloyd Daniels.
- Both David Robinson and Sean Elliott represented the Spurs in the 1993 All-Star Game.
- The Spurs closed a part of their history-books on 5/20 when they fell to the Suns 102-100 in Game Six of the Western Conference Semifinals... the game was the last one the Spurs would ever play in the HemisFair Arena, their home since they moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973.

- The Spurs parted with a pair of popular players prior to the start of the season... Avery Johnson left the team as a free agent, signing with the Warriors, and Sean Elliott was traded to Detroit for Dennis Rodman.
- David Robinson and Dennis Rodman made NBA history, as for the first time in league history a pair of teammates led the NBA in scoring and rebounding respectively... Robinson captured the scoring title, averaging 29.8 ppg, while Rodman won his third straight rebounding title, averaging 17.3 rpg.
- On 3/19 vs. Sacramento, Dale Ellis made history as he became the first player in professional basketball history to make 1,000 three-pointers.
- David Robinson ended the season with a bang... in the final game of the 1993-94 campaign, he scored a Spurs franchise record 71 points at the Clippers on 4/24... Robinson is just the fourth player in NBA history to score 70 or more points and his total was the highest since the 1978 season... thanks to the 71-point effort, Robinson edged out Shaquille O'Neal to claim his first NBA Scoring Title... Robinson also made history earlier in the season when he became just the fourth player ever to record a quadruple-double... Robinson posted his vs. Detroit on 2/17, finishing with 34 points, 10 rebounds, 10 blocks and 10 assists.

1995-96 SEASON NOTES

- The 1996 All-Star Game was held in San Antonio... the East beat the West 129-118 in front of 36,037 in the Dome... Michael Jordan - in his first All-Star Game since 1993 - was the MVP, finishing with 20 points in 22 minutes... for the Western squad David Robinson had 18 points and 11 rebounds in 23 minutes and Sean Elliott finished with 13 points in 22 minutes.

- The Spurs finished the month of March with a perfect 16-0 record, matching the '71-72 Lakers for the best month ever recorded in NBA history... the Spurs perfect month was part of a franchise-record 17 game winning streak which went from 2/29-4/2... during the streak the Spurs matched a club record by winning eight straight games on the road.

- Avery Johnson and Vinny Del Negro finished with the best assist-to-turnover ratio among any starting backcourt in the NBA... AJ and Vinny combined for a 3.74-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio... Johnson's personal assist-to-turnover ratio of 4.05-to-1 was the best among any starter in the league.

- David Robinson and Chuck Person both hit a pair of major milestones during the season... on 3/14 vs. the Heat, Person connected on the 1,000th three-pointer of his career, becoming just the fourth player in history to hit the 1,000 mark... then, on 4/15 at Portland, Robinson became just the 10th player in NBA history to record 2,000 career blocks.

1996-97 SEASON NOTES

- Injuries were the big story for the Spurs all season, as 11 different players missed games due to injury... Chuck Person (82), David Robinson (76), Charles Smith (63), Sean Elliott (43), Dominique Wilkins (19), Will Perdue (17), Monty Williams (16), Vinny Del Negro (10), Vernon Maxwell (10), Avery Johnson (6) and Carl Herrera (5) combined to miss a total of 347 games due to injuries... a total of 20 players suited up for the Spurs and the team used 24 different starting lineups.

- The Spurs were 3-15 when Gregg Popovich replaced Bob Hill as Head Coach on 12/10/96... the Spurs finished the season with a 20-62 mark, the worst record in franchise history... for just the fourth time in their NBA history, the Spurs failed to qualify for the playoffs.

1997-98 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs set an NBA record for the largest single season turnaround, posting a 56-26 mark - a 36 game improvement over their 20-62 record during the 1996-97 season ... the Spurs broke the old NBA record for a single season turnaround of 35 games, a mark set by the Spurs during the 1989-90 season.

- Tim Duncan enjoyed an impressive rookie season, averaging 21.1 points, 11.9 rebounds and 2.51 blocks per game ... he was the NBA Rookie of the Year, after being named the NBA Rookie of the Month all six months ... in addition, he earned a spot on the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- After appearing in just six games during the 1996-97 season due to injuries, David Robinson returned to All-Star form during the 1997-98 campaign ... he appeared in 73 games, averaging 21.6 points, 10.6 rebounds and 2.63 blocks per contest ... Robinson joined Tim Duncan as a member of the 1998 NBA All-Star team ... in addition, he was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- Tim Duncan and David Robinson became just the eighth set of teammates in NBA history to both average 20-plus points and 10-plus rebounds ... since 1970 the feat has been accomplished just four times ... in addition to Duncan and Robinson, other 20-point, 10-rebound teammates since that time have been Ralph Sampson and Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston in '84-85), Charles Barkley and Moses Malone (Philadelphia in '85-86) and Alonzo Mourning and Larry Johnson (Charlotte in '92-93).

1998-99 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs defeated the Knicks 4-1 in the 1999 Finals to claim the first NBA Championship in the team's 26-year history ... the Spurs rolled through the playoffs with a 15-2 mark, the second highest winning percentage in NBA history ... at one point the Spurs recorded 12 straight wins, setting an NBA record for the most consecutive victories in a single post-season ... Tim Duncan was the Finals MVP, averaging 27.4 points and 14.0 rebounds in 45.8 minutes in the five-game series ... the Spurs became the first former ABA team to advance to the NBA Finals and are just the ninth team in NBA history to win the title in their first appearance in the Finals ... the Spurs clinched their title on June 25 in Madison Square Garden when Avery Johnson hit an 18-foot jumper from the corner with 47.0 seconds left ... the basket gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead and was the final point scored in the game.

- After the NBA lifted its lockout in early January, the league played a shortened 50-game schedule ... after starting the season with a 6-8 record, the Spurs were 31-5 (.861) over their final 36 games to finish with a 37-13 mark, the best record in the NBA ... during their 31-5 run the Spurs were 17-1 in the Alamodome ... in the middle of the run Tim Duncan was named the NBA Player of the Month in March and Gregg Popovich was named the NBA Coach of the Month in April.

- For the second consecutive season the Spurs set an NBA record for the lowest opponent field goal percentage ... for the season opponents shot a mere .402 (1,631-4,061) from the floor vs. the Spurs ... the Spurs broke their own record, which they set during the 1997-98 season, holding opponents to a .411 mark from the field.

A Winning Tradition.

Incarnate Word's Crusaders provide NCAA D-II excitement.

National recognition always is the goal for Incarnate Word's athletic Crusaders. And with 16 UIW Teams competing in the NCAA Division II, UIW athletes are drawing national attention for the athletic department. National rankings for four teams. All-American and All-Region designations for individual athletes, many others showing their talents at the highest levels of competition. And in the classroom Crusader athletes continue to garner district, region and national academic honors.

Excellence in athletics and academics truly is the standard at Incarnate Word.

Check out the Crusaders. For more information call the athletic department at (210) 829-6050 or log on to the Crusaders web site at www.uiw.edu/athletics
